1. Where are My Mine who will give Me their mornings—their entire mornings—even a whole hour—everyday, putting Me before the demands and screams of things that cry urgent, and represent themselves as being more important than Me? What a joke. How ludicrous, how pathetic, how robbed are My many who value an hour of meetings with others more than an hour with Me—with Me alone—with Me by their side, with Me exposing and revealing the mysteries of Myself, My kingdom, My Word, in words to them that will propel and exponentialize and mature beyond their imagination.
2. Help them grasp the power of maturity and walk in all the authority given them, given them already, which they have ignored, trying to make money and pacify bondage-makers and others who care not for their souls, their spirit, their relationship with Me, and who grasp not that I am the source of all creativity.
3. Your chart showing all products and services begin with the creativity I've given—sources from Me, and comes out of My provision—fling far and wide, and I shall expose and reveal greater details of truth interconnecting with truth for building blocks of maturity.
4. My schools mature Ted. They don't just pass information and require regurgitation. My schools require maturity displayed to graduate, for credentials are important and counterfeits are cheap and prolific.
5. Mature My body as you take them through the maturing process of truths revealed in intensity sought deeply.
6. I bring you the ready and the unready do not graduate.
7. Courses, courses of materials many, come with insights into truth revealed at My knee—between student and teacher, and teachers communing with teachers and students—and students communing with students and teachers—and all are after capturing the truths revealed and presents given in My presence—to share with students and teachers alike, for generations here, now, and coming.
8. Communion daily and anointing in My name, and walking forth in the prophetic is My desire for all, at levels various, but in every gift I have placed on My table for My Mine—come and partake and ingest and be filled and generously share—freely understanding the principles of change that transformation implies and represents and truly is.

9. Pages and pages more Ted, if you want them—details and specifics and subjects you’ve not thought of—revealed alongside the majesty of splendor of truths given you that you asked for years ago.

10. Let them mine, let them mine My words to glean My gems of truth and know beyond any shadow of doubt that I am doing a new thing and I will do it through every one that lets Me.

11. I choose. I choose. But they choose. They choose. And they choose how I choose to elevate and escalate and provide power of My throne room and cleansing to those around them at all levels.

12. I move, I come, I call, I am, I speak, and I am speaking and the beginnings of your hundreds, volumes, has only begun with these hundreds of pages I have given you.

13. Open your schools to open My Mine to My words, with pens in hands and keyboards and computers and speech recognition and technology gadgets that propel networks coming—and correct, compel, and enjoy—tenderly maturing all who will choose maturity.

14. I love you. I love you. I love you. Maturity comes to you, maturity comes in depth of surrender and consecration and concentration of focus where I am the prize, the goal, the pleasure of Mine sought foremost. A new generation of seekers who love Me wear Me in such unashamedness, and such great immense and increasing skill, ability-ized to walk in halls of power and prowess and lead companies yes, organizations yes, communities yes, regions yes, states and provinces and districts and countries and nations and Ted, all with truth from Me gleaned from My voice, through maturity gained by time with Me and those who know what spiritual maturity is, and laugh and mock not at those who don’t understand, realizing the power of every word.

15. I am raising a new generation and I am doing it now and I am doing it through you and others who have paid a price to seek Me and learn of Me directly from Me, and obtain My promises from My heart to their heart, from My mouth to their ears, and transformed become, exhibiting value systems of Me in crafts and craftsmanship and power displayed on multiple levels.

16. I am spawning, birthing, flourishing a new generation in this generation, for great and cataclysmic are actions I propel to separate and join—to cleanse and mature—and to know Me in intimacy—creating the things, the relationships, the networks, and nation reaching truths that I have waiting for them.

17. Grow your school and strategic be. Use all I have given you. Your training all, is for purposes of Mine. Employ, go and grow and glow in the wisdom I have shared with you even through My body of late, coming to you in hope.

Thank you.
